DETAILED ACTION

1. This Office Action is in response to communication filed 5/24/04 (paper #7). Claims 1-15 and 23-50 are pending. Claims 16-22 are withdrawn

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 102

2. The following is a quotation of the appropriate paragraphs of 35 U.S.C. 102 that form the basis for the rejections under this section made in this Office action:

A person shall be entitled to a patent unless –

(b) the invention was patented or described in a printed publication in this or a foreign country or in public use or on sale in this country, more than one year prior to the date of application for patent in the United States.

3. Claim 50 is rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102(b) as being anticipated by Prager (5,255,386).

Prager teaches A natural language understanding system comprising:

“a corpus of rejectable commands corresponding to incorrect commands capable of being input by a user” (figure 3, his interference engine 32 and his rule base 34, his erroneous command 37); and

“do nothing commands corresponding to the incorrect commands input to the system which at least one of maintain the system in an idle state and prompt the user to input a response” (his explanation generation 48 and his user output 52).

Allowable Subject Matter

4. Claims 1-15 and 23-49 are allowed.

Art Unit: 2654

5. The following is a statement of reasons for the indication of allowable subject matter: the prior art or the combination of art of record do not teach a method for ensuring robustness of a natural language understanding system comprising the steps of determining a top ranked formal command based on scoring of the tagged recognized words and scoring translations of the at least one formal command and determining whether the top ranked formal command is accepted by comparing a feature vector of the top ranked formal command to representations of features vectors stored in an accept model in the specific manner and combination recited in the claim.
